About Communion

At LCOL, we trust and believe God's Word and His Holy Scripture. We believe God's Word that says that Jesus Himself is giving us not only bread and wine, but His very body and blood when we commune, that it is given for the forgiveness of our sins and to strengthen our union with Christ and with each other, and that Jesus invites to His table those who trust His words, repent of all sins, and forgive and love others, as He forgives and loves us. We believe the Word which says that because those who commune unworthily do so to their great harm; those who are not baptized or not properly prepared, and those who doubt should not commune. Because Holy Communion is a unified confession of faith of Christ's Body at LCOL, we ask that all people new to LCOL who wish to receive the Sacrament would speak first with our pastor. We ask this out of love and spiritual care for all who come here, and we ask this for the sake of our unity and Lutheran confession. We welcome all people to come forward for a blessing; simply, cross your arms on your chest when the pastor comes to you. If you have any questions, please, talk to our pastor.

Voters' Assembly and Reformation Luncheon

Sunday, October 27, 2019 after the Unified 10 am Service.

Mission Investment Challenge

We are entering the final weeks to sign up for the Mission Challenge. Lutheran Church of the Lakes has been challenged to find 75 individuals and families to add $33 per month to their regular giving in order to be awarded a $10,000 grant. To date we have 56 families who have committed.

LCOL Activity Focused Event Board

The council is asking people to place three stickers on the events they feel we should continue to promote as a church whole, keeping in mind, our mission of "making disciples by caring and growing in Christ - Together." If you have any questions about why we are holding this vote or about how the Activity Focused Board works, members of council and Pastor will be available to help you. The results will be available at the Voter's Assembly on Oct. 27.

Harvest Fest

This Friday, October 18, 5:30—7:30

October 13, 2019 - 8:15 & 10:30 am

Welcome to LCOL

Greetings. It is great to have you with us! Our sermon series is on how to study the Bible. Join us as we open the Bible and see what it means to study God's Word as a disciple of Jesus.

If you are new here, we hope you feel welcome. Come on in, take it easy, get to know us, and let us know how we can help you. If you have children, you are welcome to grab a Kid's Bag just outside the worship space. If you have little ones and need some space, there is a cry room at the back of the church. For ANYTHING else, please ask me, one of the ushers by the doors to the sanctuary, or one of our host team by the church entrance. May God bless you today and everyday!

In Christ's Name,

Pastor Tyson

Sermon Notes

Genesis 3:8-15 (pg. 3) English Standard Version (ESV)

⁸ And they heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, (Space for notes)

and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden.⁹ But the Lord God called to the man and said to him, "Where are you?" ¹⁰ And he said, "I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked, and I hid myself." ¹¹ He said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten of the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?" ¹² The man said, "The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit of the tree, and I ate." ¹³ Then the Lord God said to the woman, "What is this that you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."

¹⁴ The Lord God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, cursed are you above all livestock and above all beasts of the field; on your belly you shall go, and dust you shall eat all the days of your life. ¹⁵ I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring; he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel."
