It Happened This Week...

Spring Cleaning Thanks to volunteers and the trustee team. The area outside by the stained glass window was cleaned up and decorated for the season. It has never looked better. Thank you!

More Spring Cleaning The custodians cleaned the carpet in the sanctuary, the Fellowship Team had the chairs cleaned in the Fellowship Hall, and the Altar Guild cleaned all of the communion elements and candle holders. Things are shining like the Son, ready for Easter.

Easter Lilies By combining a memorial donation for flowers and the Altar flower money, we were able to purchase the lilies for Easter this year. Please take one home after the 10:30 service.

About Communion

At LCOL, we trust and believe God's Word and His Holy Scripture. We believe God's Word that says that Jesus Himself is giving us not only bread and wine, but His very body and blood when we commune, that it is given for the forgiveness of our sins and to strengthen our union with Christ and with each other, and that Jesus invites to His table those who trust His words, repent of all sins, and forgive and love others, as He forgives and loves us. We believe the Word which says that because those who commune unworthily do so to their great harm; those who are not baptized or not properly prepared, and those who doubt should not commune. Because Holy Communion is a unified confession of faith of Christ's Body at LCOL, we ask that all people new to LCOL who wish to receive the Sacrament would speak first with our pastor. We ask this out of love and spiritual care for all who come here, and we ask this for the sake of our unity and Lutheran confession. We welcome all people to come forward for a blessing; simply, cross your arms on your chest when the pastor comes to you. If you have any questions, please, talk to our pastor. For further study, see Matthew 5:23, 10:32, 18:15-35, 26:26-29; 1 Cor. 11:17-34.

LUTHERAN CHURCH OF THE LAKES

LC-MS

CHRIST THE LORD IS RISEN TODAY!

Welcome Guests!

We are glad to have you with us today. We invite you to join us for Easter Breakfast in the Fellowship Hall starting at 9:00 this morning. Please ask any of the people at LCOL to show you to the restrooms, kitchen or to the kids room. Happy Easter, thank you for joining us.

Wednesday Evening Bible Study

Starting this Wednesday, April 24 at 7 pm. Songs and Hymns is the theme of this four week study. Pastor leads us through the history, the story and the scripture of some of the best known songs and hymns of the church.

Easter Sunday, April 21, 2019 | 8:15 & 10:30 am

He is risen; risen indeed!

Welcome Guests,

We know that the first few times visiting a new church can be awkward. We hope you will discover there are many wonderful people here along with opportunities for you to find good friends and be part of Christ's growing Kingdom. We have Christ-centered worship each Sunday, as well as Youth Group and adult Bible studies on both Sunday morning and Wednesday evening. For your little ones, there are changing tables in the main hall in both the men's and women's restrooms, as well as a cry room in the back of the sanctuary and bags of crayons just outside the cry room door. Please leave your contact information in the red booklets in the pew, so we can better serve you in your walk with Christ and help you serve Him.

Scripture Readings

Job 19:23-27

"Oh that my words were written! Oh that they were inscribed in a book!

<sup>24</sup> Oh that with an iron pen and lead they were engraved in the rock forever!

<sup>25</sup> For I know that my Redeemer lives, and at the last he will stand upon the earth.

<sup>26</sup> And after my skin has been thus destroyed, yet in my flesh I shall see God,

<sup>27</sup> whom I shall see for myself, and my eyes shall behold, and not another. My heart faints within me!

1 Corinthians 15:51-57

Behold! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, <sup>52</sup> in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed. <sup>53</sup> For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality. <sup>54</sup> When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written:

"Death is swallowed up in victory."

<sup>55</sup> "O death, where is your victory?"

O death, where is your sting?"

<sup>56</sup> The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. <sup>57</sup> But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

John 20:1-8

Now on the first day of the week Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb. <sup>2</sup> So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." <sup>3</sup> So Peter went out with the other disciple, and they were going toward the tomb. <sup>4</sup> Both of them were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. <sup>5</sup> And stooping to look in, he saw the linen cloths lying there, but he did not go in. <sup>6</sup> Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying there, <sup>7</sup> and the face cloth, which had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen cloths but folded up in a place by itself. <sup>8</sup> Then the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; him up to the authority and jurisdiction of the governor.
